Supreme Court Nine Old Men, Martha Says

WASHINGTON (UPI).—Martha Mitchell said Wednesday the Supreme Court "should be abolished" for its ruling upholding the practice of busing to integrate public schools.

"I's absolutely asinine for those nine old men to rule against the people," said the souspoken wife of Attorney General John N. Mitchell in a telephone interview.

"We should extinguish the Supreme Court," she said. "We have no youth on the court, no Southerners, no women—just nine old men."

Mrs. Mitchell emphasized she was speaking for herself. Her husband, she said, speaks for the Justice Department and "I speak for Martha Mitchell."

Mrs. Mitchell also said that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was being slandered by his critics.
